Overall AI Summary of Executive Orders, by Mallon – Joseph Mallon, 2026

This document details Joseph Mallon's ongoing legal and executive efforts to secure recognition, authority, and support from the U.S. government regarding his claims and law case.

Legal and Executive Authority Claims

- The author asserts active legal claims against the U.S. government, including a federal law case (26-cv-02712) initiated due to unresponded SF-95 forms.
- The claims involve securing authority, funds, and recognition as a de facto U.S. President from 2029 onward, with the law case serving as a legal basis for these rights.

Unfulfilled Expectations and Ongoing Delays

- Despite continuous communication and legal actions since 2025, there has been no response, payment, or meaningful engagement from authorities.
- The author emphasizes the passing of time without resolution, highlighting frustration over lack of offers, media coverage, or opportunities.

Personal Background and Claims for Recognition

- The author details extensive credentials, including advanced academic and professional status, societal significance as the discoverer of God's Miracle Cross, and founder of related organizations.
- A long-standing personal and legal relationship with a woman, claimed to be his wife, is central, with executive orders emphasizing her recognition and the need for her to deal with him.

Specific Executive Orders and Demands

- Orders include securing the law case's legal basis, ensuring payment of requested funds (e.g., salaries, court costs, millions in claims), and enforcing respect for his authority.
- Additional orders address the recognition of his authority as a de facto U.S. President from 2029, and the need for organizations like PACs and political parties to raise funds on his behalf.

Political and Financial Strategies

- The author advocates for allying with his administration, emphasizing the importance of fundraising, political organization, and securing financial support.
- He claims rights to benefit from these efforts, including a minimum weekly salary of $2,000, and the establishment of a global currency system based on God's Miracle Cross.

Personal and Marital Disputes

- The executive orders include directives concerning a woman he claims was his wife since 1981, emphasizing her long-term obligation to deal with him and recognize their marriage.
- The orders state no one should approach her, asserting her exclusive relationship with him and her need to make amends for past neglect.

Urgency for Resolution and Security

- The author stresses the need for tangible results from the law case and executive orders to prevent worsening conditions.
- He highlights his credentials, societal significance, and the necessity of securing authority and resources to prevent further delays and injustices.

Legal and Constitutional Foundations

- The text references Amendments 9 and 10 of the U.S. Constitution, emphasizing rights and legal principles.
- The author asserts a long-standing communication with the U.S. government since the 1980s, involving original application materials and claims.

Personal Credentials and Historical Involvement

- The author has over 30 years of professional experience, licensed in insurance, securities, property, auto sales, law, and real estate.
- Since the early 1980s, he has actively communicated with the U.S. government, with significant material displayed on his website, including application documents from 2017.

Law Cases and Enforcement Efforts

- The author filed a federal law case (26-cv-02712) in 2026, seeking enforcement of rights and payment of funds, including a high amount of $1 trillion.

- He emphasizes the need for the court to secure his authority and ensure ongoing work and payment, without resorting to violence or self-help.

Executive Orders and Global Issues

- Multiple executive orders issued from 2026 to 2029 address national and global issues, including U.S. internal progress, international peace, and global economic development.
- These orders focus on advancing the law, global peace, and presenting his materials to other countries, especially concerning Ukraine, Russia, Iran, and the Middle East.

U.S. Presidential Authority and Recognition

- The author demands recognition of his rights to the U.S. Presidency beyond 2028, asserting exclusive authority and security.
- He criticizes neglect and lack of respect from previous administrations, especially Trump, and states his intent to work independently of their influence.

Global Peace and Diplomatic Initiatives

- The orders advocate for peaceful resolutions in Ukraine-Russia and Iran-Middle East conflicts.
- They include proposals for buffer zones, resort areas, and the use of God's Miracle Cross currency to facilitate economic stability and peace.

National and International Policy Engagement

- The author criticizes the neglect of his claims and materials over decades, which involve significant societal and international implications.
- He urges the U.S. to present his claims and materials to relevant foreign governments to promote peace and economic cooperation.

Claims and Financial Demands

- The author's seven primary claims involve recognition, past debts, payments, and educational credentials, with specific monetary amounts like $500 million and $109,441.71.
- He seeks ongoing payment and security, emphasizing that the total amount involved in his law case remains at $1 trillion, to be paid progressively.

Work and Recognition Over Past Decades

- The author details his extensive efforts since the 1980s, including patenting God's Miracle Cross, legal actions, and communication with government entities.
- He laments the lack of proper acknowledgment, rewards, and opportunities, asserting his meritorious contributions and rights.

Calls for Systemic Reform and Fair Treatment

- The text advocates for improved procedures, respect, and consistent enforcement of rights for himself and others.
- He emphasizes the importance of proper recognition, fair opportunities, and the correction of past injustices through legal and executive actions.

Overall Focus on Justice and Authority

- The author insists on securing his authority, rights, and benefits through law, executive orders, and court enforcement.
- He states that his ongoing work and claims are under his exclusive authority and that he must be recognized as the future U.S. President from 2028 onward.

AI Summary of Executive Order by Mallon Describing Legal Basis—Authority for United States to Pay Funds Sought, 09/03/2026

The document requests the U.S. government to pay funds based on my legal authority, due to unresolved issues despite extensive communication and legal action.

Legal and Communication Background

- I have repeatedly communicated with the White House, including a letter on April 2, 2026, which did not address my issues.
- My SF-95 form was active, but received no response, prompting me to file a federal case (26-cv-02712).
- The case remains unresolved, with the judge yet to declare outcomes.

Legal Basis and Rights

- I possess authority and legal basis for claims since October 2025, reinforced by the SF-95 and court case.
- I seek payments via direct deposit or paycheck, including a weekly $2,000 salary, court costs, and specific fund requests.

Funds Requested

- $2,000 weekly until further resolution.
- $18 million for 2025-2026, doubled from previous requests.
- $2 million for a God's Miracle Cross currency fund.
- Payment for 5,000 personnel under my authority.

AI Summary of Executive Order by Mallon concerning Woman who has the Wife Status, 09-03-2026

This document is an executive order asserting that a woman, considered the author's wife for over 30 years, must recognize her marriage and deal with him exclusively.

Main Purpose and Context

- The author claims a long-standing marriage with a woman, symbolized by a God's Miracle Cross, which he considers equivalent to a legal marriage.
- He emphasizes their marriage began in 1981 and involved spiritual and dream-based connections.
- Over decades, he sought to reunite with her despite physical distance and lack of communication.

Key Issues and Claims

- The woman was supposed to be his wife, but was kept apart, which he describes as abuse and mistreatment.
- He made legal cases to facilitate their reunion, but little was achieved.
- Despite efforts, she did not respond to communication, and her whereabouts became unknown.
- He asserts she interfered with other women and failed to fulfill her marital duties.
- He believes her prolonged absence and silence undermine her rights as his wife.

Legal and Personal Assertions

- The order states she must acknowledge her wife status and deal with him exclusively.
- No one is to approach her closely, as she remains his wife.
- He claims her marriage was blessed with the God's Miracle Cross and that she owes him for over 30 years of neglect.
- He considers her current inability to communicate or be present as a loss of her rights.

Conclusion

- The order emphasizes her obligation to deal with him to restore their marriage and rights.
- It underscores his view that she is still his wife and must act accordingly.
