UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

Joseph Mallon

Plaintiff/Appellant

Case Number: 26-cv-02712

v.

United States, Liable for Donald J. Trump (and Trump Administration)

Defendant/Appellee

Notice of Appeal of Denial of Motion for Judgment by Default

I, Joseph Mallon, proceeding pro se, am providing notice to the Court that I am appealing the denial of the Motion for Judgment by Default (Denial, Court Filing 34 and Motion, Court Filing 33). I do not feel that the denial decision was right, inclusive of substance, or considerate of the important facts or issues involved, including the seriousness and extensiveness of the justification for the relief sought. The merit of the plaintiff or the plaintiff's work was not taken into consideration, and denying the Motion for Judgment by Default caused, among other negative occurrences, a prejudice to the plaintiff, myself, working pro se.

My law case, 26-cv-02712, continued for more than six months, 04-26-2026 to the present day of 11-20-2026, in the Federal Court, following six months of an unanswered SF-95 form, without the defendant responding to myself or the Court, following a Summons and Complaint appropriately served on the defendant. The defendant was allowed 60 days to respond but did not respond in more than 6 months. The Motion for Judgment by Default should have been approved.

I am now providing the Court with Notice that I am appealing the denial of the Motion for Judgment by Default.
