UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

Joseph Mallon

Plaintiff

Case Number: 26-cv-02712

v.

United States, Liable for Donald J. Trump (and Trump Administration)

Defendant

Motion for Giving a Chance for Something to be Worked Out Before I Appeal

I made a law case in a United States Federal Court. I had grounds for the law case and sought compensations due me without needing everything all at once at the start but needing enough presently so that anything additional can be reasonably and fairly worked out. My cause of action was that the United States disengaged and would not respond when needed and required to respond, which caused a damage to rights, property, and career activity, because of the negligence, wrongful act, and omission (U.S. Department of Justice). When the defendant was not doing the work on the student loan defenses back in 2019, the student loans defenses piled up to a mass amount, which caused a class action federal court law case to be made in the Northern District of California, and this California District Court law case is where my student loans were appropriately, justly, and honorably discharged in full and where I am continuing to follow-up from to cover the issues involved that were not only student loans but were also mostly concerning the United States (Sweet v. DeVos / Cardona / McMahon, No. 19-cv-3674, N.D. Cal. United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Student Loans Defense Number 01400527). I just wanted what I earned, which was being on my advanced doctoral and executive levels and having my doctoral dissertations rewarded and honored because I had already so extensively communicated to the White House through the previous years (https://www.godsmiraclecross.com/perspectives). Currently, the defendant, the vicariously liable United States, defaulted through more than six months of this law case, 26-cv-02712. I made a Motion for Judgment by Default. The Motion for Judgment by Default was denied. I followed-up and made a more inclusive Motion for Judgment by Default. Even though I made good faith efforts with the next Motion for Judgment by Default, the Motion was denied again. I do not want to do that again, especially just to have the Motion denied again. I do not want to do just nothing, either, so I considered appealing. Before I would make an appeal, I wanted to give one more chance at actually working on this law case without an appeal.

I want something constructive to come of this law case. That is why I made it and paid to have this law case. I want to see something result that is of some good and that I see is of benefit. I want something that adds to the situation. I want this law case to serve a good purpose. That is what I am looking for and expecting and requesting from this law case.

Can anything be worked out with me concerning this law case or any of the issues involved with this law case before I make an appeal and so that I do not have to make an appeal? If anything can be worked out with me, I request it be presented to me so that I can work with it. I do not expect everything all at once, but I would expect something that would be sufficient for me to continue doing the involved work without any further injustice to me.

For instance, the United States, having vicarious liability for Trump and the Trump administration can be ordered to pay for the Court costs, legal fees, and pay to me for my work done involving this law case and the United States. I can be paid for now, as I have been saying, a pay of a salary of $2,000 per week for being in an advanced professional position of honor with the United States government. I cited this Int'l Union law case in my Motion for Default Judgment because the default judgment was approved for the plaintiffs along with legal fees, exhibiting and providing direct authority for the default judgment to be granted to the plaintiff for the defendant failing to respond, Int'l Union of Operating Eng'rs of E. Pennsylvania & Delaware Benefit Pension Fund v. N. Abbonizio Contractors, Inc., 134 F. Supp. 3d 862, E.D. Pa. 2015. If something can be worked out with me, I request it be presented to me as efficiently as possible. I will proceed accordingly and including in terms of whether or not I make an appeal.

Please inform me of any offer, opportunity, or possibility with my law case or any of its issues involved so that I do not have to make an appeal.
